DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

This mid-block building is similar to 805 N. Howard St. with several important differences. There is only one entrance at the first floor level (to the left and deeply recessed). The shop window consists of two large vertical panes topped by 2 transoms which have been painted over. There is a 3rd panel of shop front which is the right side of the door recess. It forms a slightly obtuse angle with the street shop window.

The shop cornice is identical to the one on 805 N. Howard Street. The four upper windows are each one-over-one double hung. The cornice is similar to the one at 805, but missing the central bracket, and scalloped trim, having a molding there instead.
